

Cultural week and national youth festival 2017
Group of pupils of the bilingual school Mother Alphonse Marie in Nkoulou Cameron

morning meeting of pupils, prayer and singing of the national hymn

Education in health matters by staffmembers of the hospital.

The headmaster of the school Sr. Marie Koloko accompanied by Christian Onana, the young christian head.

The children's dancing group ... awaited eagerly by the audience...

The sisters and teachers are active as well!

One has to observe the rhythm running in the blood of these children, who are up to feting performing sketches as the sketch about offenses shown in the photos below.

Who is going to play Indian wrestling with our pupils next year?

